They Compromised at Last

Mr. and Mrs. Jones were undecided what automobile they should buy. Mr. Jones wanted a Buick. But Mrs. Jones would have nothing but a Maxwell. They kept quarreling for months about it. At last they compromised the matter by going down to B. W. Hooker & Co.'s and selecting a nice Collapsible Go-Cart. It was the Wagner brand.

Consider Your Baby's Comfort

When you take the little fellow out for a ride in the open air during the hot summer, don't make him ride in a cart that is stuffy and padded on all sides so that he will be hot and uncomfortable.

Get one of these cool, leather-lined collapsible carts that are handy for you and convenient for him. They don't take up much space—they are ball-bearing—move about easily—are graceful—attractive—and they work well anywhere.

The prices are remarkably low.

On Go-Carts at the present time, we have a nice stock—a stock not over forty-eight hours old—but on Baby Carriages we are sold out and have been for a month, although we doubled our last season's order. Should you prefer a Carriage to a Go-Cart, come in and see the F. A. Whitney Carriage Co.'s (the leader for fifty years) Photographs, order a Carriage, take thirty per cent off the list, and if the Carriage is not perfectly satisfactory you need not take it. That's fair, isn't it?
